

Universal Male Suffrage

- Early 1800s - voting limited to white male landowners
- Political unrest prompts states to re-evaluate constitutions
- Proposed solution - universal male suffrage
- George S. Camp - every man has natural rights
 - Includes the right to vote
 - Economic conditions shouldn't stop people from exercising those rights